

Major Media Plagiarizes Army Whistleblower in Hillary Email Revelations - Instigator News

By Scott Bennett, Ph.D.

There's a story within the story of Hillary Clinton's missing emails which people in Washington have known about since 2012, and are now dreading the American public's discovery of. It is the story which not only explains her connection to terrorist financing, Union Bank of Switzerland, a defense contractor, and a Washington DC law firm called Covington and Burling, but also shows the attempted cover-up of this story which entangles the highest ranks of America's government.

Unfortunately since the media is, to a large extent, a participant in this cover up (whether out of ignorance, cowardice or malice), they won't tell you the truth. But I can, because I was there; and I will, because it is necessary to preserve what's left of our national integrity.

So strap in, it's a wild ride, and you may get dizzy, nauseous, and vomit before reaching the conclusion. One thing is for sure though, however you exit this informational rollercoaster—whether carried out unconscious, staggering, or furiously inspired and demanding more—your tolerance of bullsh#t will certainly be stretched to new lows.

All aboard? ...ready, steady, go:

MEDIA PLAGIARISM

First of all let's get one thing clear: the recent Wall Street Journal article seemingly exposing for the first time Hillary Clinton's connection to Union Bank of Switzerland and its obscenely generous financial contributions to the Clinton Foundation and employment of Bill Clinton as a $1.5 million dollar speaker was not the literary product of the Wall Street Journal or its researchers or journalists. (See Exhibit 1, at the link: <http://www.wsj.com/articles/ubs-deal-shows-clintons-complicated-ties-1438223492>).

All of the material used by the Wall Street Journal in their story was in fact given to them by an Army Officer in a report dated September 25, 2012. Incidentally, Fox News also received this report multiple times, and all of the pundits who warm seats at Fox News Channel (1211 Avenue of the Americas, 2nd Floor, New York, NY 10036). I know this because I wrote the report they used, and the State Department cables they cite which mention "Colenco", was not discovered by them, but given to me by Brad Birkenfeld the UBS Whistleblower, after he received it from Wikileaks.

The Wall Street Journal article states:

She also wanted to discuss a Swiss-based energy-consulting company, Colenco AG, that allegedly was violating international sanctions by providing civilian-nuclear technology to Iran, according to a State Department cable that July 1. And Mrs. Clinton wanted Switzerland to take some low-risk detainees from the prison in Guantanamo Bay, which President Barack Obama has vowed to close, according to the cable.

After the meeting broke up, Ms. Calmy-Rey spoke to reporters about the importance of resolving the UBS problem: "It was not in our common interest for the situation to escalate further as UBS is responsible for 30,000 jobs in the U.S., and the bank's difficulties could weaken the international financial system."

A State Department official wrote after the meeting in another cable that the UBS case was "a dark cloud over bilateral relations, with concerns it could escalate to a seriously damaging event.” The State Department declined to comment on any of the cables made public by WikiLeaks.

(See Exhibit 1: <http://www.wsj.com/articles/ubs-deal-shows-clintons-complicated-ties-1438223492>)

The Wall Street Journal's failure to cite the Army Officer as the source represents plagiarism, and will be filed as such in a lawsuit against them in court by this writer. “Oh, what a tangled web we weave, when first we practice to deceive.”

The article also stated:

As loose ends of the deal were being tied up in late 2009, UBS began making plans to create a small-businesses program. In early 2010 it decided to team up with a Clinton Foundation project called the Clinton Economic Opportunity Initiative.

UBS started a pilot entrepreneurs program in New York City in June 2011 with a $350,000 donation to the foundation, according to the bank. Its only previous donations were “membership fees” of about $20,000 a year. The 2011 donation also paid for an earlier appearance by Mr. Clinton at a UBS event where he discussed the economy, the bank said.

The truth is, the “loose ends” mentioned in the cable was actually the illegal prosecution of the UBS whistleblower Brad Birkenfeld by Attorney General Eric Holder and Assistant Attorney General Lanny Breuer and coordinating this will Hillary Clinton and the State Department and Senator Carl Levin. This is cited in the State Department cable with Brad Birkenfeld mentioned as the inventor of the “Diamonds in the Toothpaste” Swiss Bank smuggling activity.

MESSAGES WITHIN THE EMAILS

With Hillary Clinton’s recent attempts to imitate (however unbelievably) Bill Clinton’s political clairvoyance and slippery luck through podium antics of deflection humor and nervous swatting-away of questions and suggestions, one thing is clear: there’s blood in the water and the mindless media sharks are in a feeding frenzy trying to chase down where it leads.

The raw question they are thrashing about trying to answer is: What did Hillary know, when did she know it, and what did she do with the information that violated our country’s Constitution and hurt every single American citizen—not to mention our international friends and allies? In other words, what was in the emails she’s trying to hide or destroy?

I know exactly what was in them. I saw lots of the material she began analyzing and scheming to manipulate as she was coming into the Department of State.

This is the story within the story that explains it; and it is the story that every American will be so outraged by, it could very possibly lead to revolutionary changes in our government, military, and intelligence sectors.

HIGH CRIMES, CONSPIRACY, AND ABUSE OF POWER

The information within the emails, and the “black hole” appearing where others were erased, is painting a picture of treasonous offenses. The materials are being translated like Egyptian hieroglyphics into an indictment of Hillary Clinton for treason, which will naturally also expand the parties who collaborated with her (or rather conspired) to manipulate the powers of government for their own selfish gain, not the benefit of Americans. These parties include: President Barack Obama, former Attorney General Eric Holder, and Assistant Attorney General Lanny Breuer, and former Deputy Staff Director and General Counsel at the House Armed Services Committee, Roger Zakheim, and the law firm connected to them, Covington and Burling (which represented two of the biggest terrorist financing banks, HSBC and Union Bank of Switzerland). Additionally the defense contractor Booz Allen Hamilton, which partnered with Covington and Burling, should also be prosecuted.

Most likely when all is exposed and the bank accounts examined and the timeline laid out, impeachment, jail, and a United Nations condemnation for covering up a major terrorist finance syndicate will result. The famous and fake “too big to jail” excuse used by the Obama administration was a smokescreen for their own treasonous connection to these banks, through Covington and Burling, and the terrorism being funded through black budgets that these parties were participating in. This was the story within the story, and American military members are dead because of it.

CONCLUSION:

Like the old 1960’s Vietnam-police state protest song says, “There’s something happening here, what it is ‘aint exactly clear, there’s a man with a gun over there, telling me I got to beware, saying ‘stop, children, what’s that sound, everybody check what’s goin’ round.’”

Sadly, some 40-plus years later, we find ourselves in a worse position. Mentally unstable, ignorant, or sadistic Police officers—many of whom never served in the military—are now “playing army man” and feeding their “Call of Duty” video game addiction by proudly parading military gear and attack attitudes against an unarmed American population.

Something indeed is happening here, and it bodes poorly for healthy minds, free hearts, and peaceful spirits who demand legally transparent and morally accountable government. Something only free citizens can arrest, by the power of their pen, the guns, and their organized liberties and inalienable rights.

Outrageously, termite bureaucrats (particularly the unelected in government agencies and the military) are burrowing through the infrastructure of America’s Constitutional freedoms and protections and legal insulations which protect citizens from the oligarchical tyrannies (reckless environmental exploitation, financial pyramid schemes, and cultural disintegration) imposed by the military-intelligence-security clearance class; and their power-porn addicted politicians. Indeed morally loose politicians like Senator Lindsay Graham and angry maniacs like Senator John McCain are expressing their own personal self-resentments through re-incarnating an endless terrorist war.

These Congressional leaders are nervously watching where the Hillary “Email-Gate” leads, because they realize it will soon lead back to them, and expose the date they were first notified about these criminal acts—September 25, 2012.

When it does, they know their next move will either be: 1) to invent a desperate excuse without sounding desperate to explain away the hypocrisy and treason implicit in their act of conspiring to hide the terrorist financing explicitly described in Hillary Clinton’s unfolding story; or 2) participate in another false flag attack upon the United States, (like this one recently forecasted:

<http://www.rt.com/uk/313387-jewish-leader-iran-deal/>), to divert attention and create a smokescreen for them to try and hide the issues. Based on history, I'm afraid they will choose the latter.

Time will tell.
